

Bylaws of SFR, Inc., an Oklahoma corporation

Article I. Meeting

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the Shareholders of this Corporation shall be held on the Sunday which falls during the GenCon summer convention of each year or at such other time and place designated by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. Business transacted at the annual meeting shall include the election of Directors of the Corporation.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Shareholders shall be held when directed by the President or the Board of Directors, or when requested in writing by the holders of not less than a majority of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting. A meeting requested by Shareholders shall be called for a date not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days after request is made, unless the Shareholders requesting the meeting designate a later date. The call for the meeting shall be issued by the President, a majority of Shareholders, the Board of Directors, or such other person as designated by any of the same.

Section 3. Place. Meetings of Shareholders shall be held online by means available to all Shareholders, or at such other place as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Notice. Written notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten (10) nor more than sixty (60) days before the meeting, either personally, by first class mail, or by e-mail and a notice posted on the Shareholders Forum on the SFR Forum, by or at the direction of the President or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each Shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, prepaid and addressed to the Shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer books of the Corporation. If e-mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered if no notice indicating non-delivery is sent to the company and the notice is accompanied by an accompanying post on the Shareholders Forum.

Section 5. Notice of Adjourned Meeting. When a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of the adjourned meeting if the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. At the adjourned meeting, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted on the original date of the meeting. However, if after the adjournment the Board of Directors fixes a new record date for the adjournment meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as provided in this Article to each Shareholder of record.

Section 6. Shareholder Quorum and Voting. A majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of Shareholders. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the Shareholders, unless otherwise provided by law.

Section 7. Voting of Shares. Each outstanding share shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of Shareholders.

Section 8. Proxies. A Shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the Shareholder or his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid eleven (11) months from the date thereof unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

Section 9. Action by Shareholders Without a Meeting. Any action required by law, these Bylaws, or the Articles of Incorporation of the Corporation to be taken at any annual or special meeting of Shareholders, or any action which may be taken at any annual or special meeting of Shareholders, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted, as is provided by law.

ARTICLE II. DIRECTORS

Section 1. Function. The Board of Directors shall exercise its power and authority to manage the business and affairs of the Corporation.

Section 2. Qualification. Directors need not be residents of this state. All Directors shall be Shareholders in this corporation.

Section 3. Compensation. Each director shall receive compensation as specified by current corporate resolution. Any changes to the compensation must be approved by the stockholders at a meeting of the company.

Section 4. Presumption of Assent. A Director of the Corporation who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless he votes against such action or abstains from voting in respect thereto because of an asserted conflict of interest.

Section 5. Number. This Corporation shall have a minimum of three (3) and a maximum of five (5) Director(s). Of these, at least one Director shall be an "outside" Director who holds no office or title within the company.

Section 6. Election and Term. At each annual meeting, the Shareholders shall elect Directors to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting. Each Director shall hold office for a period of one (1) year or until their successors are elected, or until his earlier resignation, removal from office or death.

Section 7. Vacancies. Vacancies on the Board shall not be filled until the next regularly scheduled election unless the number of Directors drops below the minimum required. If the number of Directors drops below the minimum, the remaining Directors shall select replacement(s) by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining Directors (though less than a quorum of the Board of Directors) until such time as an election can be scheduled or the next annual meeting, whichever occurs first. Should the vacancy be created in the outside Director position, even if the number of existing Directors has not dropped below the minimum number required, a new Director filling that specific role shall be appointed by the current Board of Directors as outlined in this section as soon as practicable.

Section 8. Removal of Directors. At a meeting of Shareholders called expressly for that purpose, any Director or the entire Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of Directors.

Section 9. Quorum and Voting. A majority of the number of Directors serving in accordance with these Bylaws shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The act of voting by the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

Section 10. Executive and Other Committees. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the full Board of Directors, may designate from among its members an executive committee and one or more other committees each of which, to the extent provided in such resolution, shall have and may exercise all the authority of the Board of Directors, except as is provided by law.

Section 11. Place of Meeting. Regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held via Internet through a means available to all directors, or at such other place as may be designated by agreement of the Board.

Section 12. Time, Notice and Call of Meetings. Written notice of the time and place of special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be given to each Director by either personal delivery, e-mail, or post to the Board of Directors Forum on the SFR Forum at least three (3) days before the meeting or by notice mailed to the Director at least three (3) days before the meeting.

Notice of a meeting of the Board of Directors need not be given to any Director who signs a Waiver of Notice either before or after a meeting. Attendance of a Director at a meeting shall constitute a Waiver of Notice of such meeting and waiver of any and all objections to the place of the meeting, the time of the meeting, or the manner in which it has been called or convened, except when a Director states, at the beginning of the meeting, any objections to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the Notice or Waiver of Notice of such meeting.

A majority of the Directors present, whether or not a quorum exists, may adjourn any meeting of the Board of Directors to another time and place. Notice of any such adjourned meeting shall be given to the Directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment and, unless the time and place of the adjourned meeting are announced at the time of the adjournment, to the other Directors.

Meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President of the Corporation or by any two Directors.

Members of the Board of Directors may participate in a live meeting of such Board by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time.

Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

Section 13. Action Without a Meeting. Any action required to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so to be taken, signed by all the Directors, or all the members of the committee, as the case may be, is filed in the Minutes of the proceedings of the Board or of the committee. Such consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote.

ARTICLE III. OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. The Officers of this Corporation shall consist of a President and a Treasurer, each of whom shall be elected by the Board of Directors. Such other Officers and assistant Officers and Agents as may be deemed necessary may be elected or appointed by the Board of Directors from time to time. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, with the exception of the positions of President and Treasurer, which must be held by two different people.

Section 2. Duties. The Officers of this Corporation shall have the following duties:

(1) The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Corporation, shall have the general and active management of the business and affairs of the Corporation subject to the directions of the Board of Directors, and shall preside at all meetings of the Shareholders and Board of Directors.

(2) The Treasurer shall have the custody of all corporate funds and financial records, shall keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements and render accounts thereof at the annual meetings of Shareholders, and whenever else required by the Board of Directors or the President, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or the President.

Section 3. Removal of Officers. An officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board whenever, in its judgment, the best interests of the Corporation will be served thereby.

Any vacancy in any office may be filled by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV. STOCK CERTIFICATES

Section 1. Issuance. Every holder of shares in this Corporation shall be entitled to have a Certificate representing all shares to which he is entitled. No Certificate shall be issued for any share until such share is fully paid.

Section 2. Form. Certificates representing shares in this Corporation shall be signed by the President.

Section 3. Transfer of Stock. The Corporation shall register a Stock Certificate presented to it for transfer if the Certificate is properly endorsed by the holder of record or by his duly authorized attorney.

Section 4. Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. If the shareholder shall claim to have lost or destroyed a Certificate of shares issued, upon the making of an affidavit of the fact by the person claiming the Certificate of stock to be lost, stolen or destroyed, and, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, upon the deposit of a bond or other indemnity in such amount and with such sureties, if any, as the Board may reasonably require, the Board of Directors may direct a new Certificate or Certificates to be issued in place of any Certificate or Certificates theretofore issued by the Corporation.

ARTICLE V. BOOKS AND RECORDS

Section 1. Books and Records. This Corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its Shareholders, Board of Directors and committees of Directors.

This Corporation shall keep at its registered office or principal place of business, a record of its Shareholders, giving the names and addresses of all Shareholders and the number of shares held by each.

Any books, records and minutes may be in written form or in any other form capable of being converted into written form within a reasonable time.

Section 2. Shareholders' Inspection Rights. Any person who shall have been a holder of record of shares, or of voting trust certificates therefor, at least six (6) months immediately preceding his demand, or the holder of record of voting trust certificates for at least five percent (5%) of the outstanding shares of the Corporation, upon written demand stating the purpose thereof, shall have the right to examine, in person or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time or times, for any proper purpose, its relevant books and records of accounts, minutes and records of shareholders and to make extracts therefrom.

Section 3. Financial Information. Not later than four (4) months after the close of each fiscal year, this Corporation shall prepare a balance sheet showing in reasonable detail the financial condition of the Corporation as of the close of its fiscal year, and a Profit and Loss Statement showing the results of the operations of the Corporation during its fiscal year. The fiscal year of this corporation shall run from January to December of a calendar year.

Upon the written request of any Shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates for shares of the Corporation, the Corporation shall mail to each Shareholder, or holder of voting trust certificates, a copy of the most recent Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Statement.

Balance Sheets and Profit and Loss Statements shall be kept in the registered office of the Corporation in this state for at least five (5) years, and shall be subject to inspection during business hours by any Shareholder or holder of voting trust certificates, in person or by agent.

ARTICLE VI. DIVIDENDS

The Board of Directors of this Corporation may, from time to time, declare, and the Corporation may pay, dividends on its shares in cash, property or its own shares, except when the Corporation is insolvent or when the payment thereof would render the Corporation insolvent, subject to the provisions of Oklahoma Statutes.

ARTICLE VII. AMENDMENT

These Bylaws may be altered, amended or repealed, and new Bylaws may be adopted, by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors making such resolution; and, thereafter, submitting the said altered, amended, repealed and new Bylaws to a specially called Shareholders meeting, at which meeting a majority of the Shareholders entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall have approved or disapproved.

The foregoing Bylaws were adopted by a majority of the Shareholders of the Corporation at its principal Shareholders meeting held on August 13, 2006.
